WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON May 21 — In the House the Senate amendments to the Postoffice appropriation bill was taken up. The first important one reached was that of doubling the China Mail service subsidy. A stormy debate ensued in which the amendment was advocated by Garfield and Sargent and opposed by Holman, Morgan and Randall. The latter alluded to influences at work for the appropriation which were disgraceful to Congress. In the efforts made by the people outside and inside the hall Randall and Morgan asserted in great excitement that there was a hired lobby to carry it through. Mr Sargent questioned Mr Randall at length as to what influences he referred to and insisted that he should be specific in his replies as to the means used and as to what members had been influenced. Randall refused to individualize his remarks but declared that Sargent might apply them if he chose and said if a committee of investigation was appointed he would guarantee to make good his assertions. Finally Banks objected to the interruption of business, called Sargent to order and after some private discussion voting commenced. Holman moved to reduce the subsidy to $500 000 a year. Lost 88 to 100

On motion the spare time of contracting for additional service is to be limited to three months after the passage of the act. On motion of Butler of Massachusetts, engines and machinery as well as ships themselves are required to be of American manufacture. The Senate proposition as then amended was agreed to. Yeas 100 nays, 85.

Butler spoke at length in opposition to the supplemental articles and expressed his belief that no change should be made in the treaty of Washington. The House adjourned

A SLIGHT MISTAKE — The following anecdote which appeared in the newspapers many years ago is said to have been founded on an actual occurrence. Although it may not illustrate the Democratic simplicity of the people of Vermont to day it is worth [illegible] as a good story and good also for many years [illegible] newspapers

Hallo [illegible] with a pail and frock [illegible] whether His Honor the Governor resides here [illegible] said a British officer as he brought his fiery horse to a stand in front of Gov Chittenden's dwelling

The predicament of the officer can be better imagined than described

OREGON

Leonard Buell has been appointed Postmaster at Looking Glass, Douglas county

John Wright died very suddenly at Cove, Union county on the 6th instant of congestion of the stomach

Rev A W Sweeney formerly of Albany has taken charge of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Walla Walla

Work has been commenced on the new light house at Cape Foulweather in Tillamook county, near the southern boundary of Benton

Mr William Delaney of Marion county owns a clock which has been running for seventy five years. It was brought to Oregon in 1843.

A Masonic Lodge called Grand Ronde Valley, U D, has lately been organized at Union. The following are the officers: John Dobbins, W M; Samuel Hanna, S W; William Hutchinson, J W

The Mountain Sentinel says: "The citizens of La Grande are making preparations toward holding one of the largest celebrations on the coming Fourth of July that has ever been had in Grand Ronde Valley"

The Salem Statesman says: O A Brown has just returned from Eugene City where he has been collecting Indians belonging to the Siletz Agency. These Indians had become a pest to the inhabitants of that city and it was their remonstrance that induced the expedition of Mr Brown. Some thirty or more were collected but will not be sent to the Agency at present, on account of the prevalence of smallpox among the tribes there

At the present term of the District Court at Walla Walla, Judge Lewis presiding, Wm H Shaffer was convicted on a plea of guilty of grand larceny and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment. The Statesman compliments Judge Lewis by saying that he has been pushing the business of his Court with a rapidity heretofore unknown in the administration of justice in this county and acquits himself to the satisfaction of jurors, witnesses and all concerned

The Walla Walla Statesman says: Recent events would seem to indicate that Walla Walla is infested by a gang of burglars who pursue their calling with impunity, and against whose depredations the local police offer no protection whatever. Indeed the experience of the past two months leads to the belief that the pay of a night watch is little better than the waste of that much money. Four burglaries were committed in the town during the week—some of them of a very bold and startling character

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Sweet Vengeance is the classic name of a town in Yuba county California

Florida clergymen speak against the habit of church members carrying revolvers

The Italian journals are crying out against the increasing emigration from that country to America

There are 620 convicts in the Michigan State Prison, 338 of whom are employed on regular contracts

In New York gas costs $3 50 per thousand cubic feet; in Pittsburg, Pa, $1 60; in San Francisco, $2

Five hundred millions of postage stamps were issued the first week in May by the United States Government

The Lake Superior and Mississippi Railroad has recently been leased to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for a term of 99 years

There are in Troy, N Y, 15 stove foundries, which consume 20,000 tons of pig iron annually, using 10,000 tons of coal. They make 190 000 stoves a year and give employment to about 1,800 hands

Savannah was the first city in the United States that had a paid fire department. The department was organized in 1830 and the members received 12½ cents per hour while on duty at fires

The tunnel under the lake for supplying Chicago with water is capable of furnishing 54 000 000 gallons daily. The machinery now used for pumping can supply about 25,000,000 gallons daily

Several companies have lately been formed to establish settlements on the Southern coast of California. The cultivation of semi tropical fruits is the principal object of the proposed settlements

At a recent meeting of the Pennsylvania Colonization Society it was stated that 3 000 freedmen had applied for passage to Liberia and that an expedition will start as soon as the necessary funds are raised

The Missouri Texas and Kansas Railway has reached the Canadian river and will be to the Texas line before September, meeting there the Texas Central. Through cars will then be run from Galveston to New York

E Louis Blanc says General Trochu is an egotist given to much talk and lacking faith in human nature. For this last reason he was not a fit person to defend Paris. The best he thought of was to hold out till he was starved out

Mr George F Gressor, of Howard county, Ind, is the proprietor of a well from which flows both water and gas, irrigating and illuminating his premises at one and the same time. It is located at Alto five miles south of Kokomo

Iron ore of the best quality in Tennessee, of which there is an inexhaustible quantity, costs at furnace $1 50 to $2 per ton, and made into pig iron, from $17 to $22 per ton. Coal that will make iron at 6 to 8 cents per bushel at mines

The first coal ever mined in the United States was dug near Richmond Va. Bituminous coal was mined there as early as 1700 and in 1775 was extensively used in the vicinity. During the Revolution a Richmond foundry employed this coal in making shot and shell for the use of the Continental forces

POLITICAL NOTES

The Germans have invented an excellent name for the Liberal Presidential candidate— Dograntmutter

When Gratz Brown made his brazen bid for the Vice Presidency at Cincinnati one of the Missouri delegation shouted "sold but not delivered"

Mary had a little lamb
It drank cold water freely
And looked so innocently wise
She called it Horace Greeley

The New York World joins the Chicago Times in demand that Greeley gives bonds not to withdraw in case the Democrats make a nomination. It is suggested that Jeff Davis would probably go his bail

Theodore Tilton telegraphed to a friend in New York just before the final ballot in the Cincinnati Convention that the Greeley delegates had a good thing. That is so. And the thing will be decently interred in November next

It is a somewhat significant fact that the Liberal movement is confined to the large cities, always prepared to send forth to conventions their politicians and office holders, ex and expectant. As a popular uprising the thing is not a great success

[illegible] Imperator MDCCCLXXII. Now do the Praetors summon the people to witness a grand gladiatorial show in the political Forum. The Horatii and the Curatii will forget their ancient enmity and unite for the amusement of the populace in a combat with the Northern and African lions. At the close of the ceremonies the beasts will devour the brothers

Mr Greeley states in his Recollections of a Busy Life that if there had appeared to be as much glory to be won in the farming business when he was a boy as there is now he probably would not have entered the journalistic field. Why may we not hope to see some time the Chappaqua farm blooming like a garden and abounding in the most approved bovines. If he succeeds in cultivating as many bulls in his favorite pursuit as he has in politics his success in the stock line will be unequaled, for in the latter they have reached an enormous size

BALTIMORE May 22 — An examination of the charges against Rev Dr Huston was commenced yesterday in a court of Presiding Elders, Rev Samuel Rodgers and Rev S Zimmerman being at the head. It commenced by an examination of the servant girl Virginia Hopkins. The proceedings are in secret

The New York Strikers

NEW YORK May 22 — The excitement among the laborers of the city continues. The demands of carpenters, brick layers, masons and plumbers have been acceded to. Pattern makers, cabinet makers and sash makers have every prospect of success

Woodhullites

The owners of the Grand Opera House refuse to allow the Woodhullites to hold a meeting there as advertised

Horatio on Horace

The World denies the truth of the statement that Horatio Seymour approves of the endorsement of the Cincinnati candidates by the Baltimore Convention, and says the Governor declines to express any opinion and further, that the Democracy should abide by the decision of the Baltimore Convention

Roger A Pryor has just returned from the Southern States and reports that the Southern delegates will enter the Baltimore Convention solid for Greeley, and expresses the belief that nothing can prevent the ratification of the Cincinnati nominees

Illinois Republican Convention.

CHICAGO May 22 — The Republican State Convention which meets in Springfield to day, will nominate ex Governor Oglesby for Governor by acclamation as there is no opposition to him. The real contest is expected to take place over the nomination of Lieutenant Governor. It is understood that the programme is to elect Oglesby United States Senator, in case of the Legislature being Republican, and the Lieutenant Governor will thereby become Governor

Breckinridge not for Greeley.

LEXINGTON May 22 — The Daily Press of this morning evidently contradicts by authority, the report that John C Breckinridge favors the election of Greeley

English Press on the Treaty.

NEW YORK, May 22 — A London special says the English papers continue to discuss the Treaty of Washington with undiminished interest. The editorials are generally inspired by a desire to prevent the failure of the arbitration and save the treaty

An article in the Pall Mall Gazette says the whole drift of the feeling in England justifies it in saying that the worst thing to do with the treaty is to save it. Saving the treaty means offense and humiliation to America or England, or both. It means a renewal, not abatement, of the ill feeling it was intended to allay

UTAH.

SALT LAKE May 22 — The refusal of Judge Hawley to recognize Morton as Territorial Marshal, is based on the fact that that officer was never commissioned by the Governor

James Montgomery, miner who left Alta City for Silver Fork, a short time since has not been heard from. It is supposed he has perished in the snow

The church organ is endeavoring to make it appear that the great petition of the women of Utah to Congress against Statehood was fraud, many Mormons having signed it under a misapprehension of its true character, evidence however abundant of its genuineness to the contrary notwithstanding

NEVADA

Runaway Cars

WADSWORTH NEV May 22 — This morning, the freight train from the East—thirty five cars and two engines—came down the grade into town divided into three sections having first broken in two at the top of the grade a mile from town. The rear section soon broke in two, leaving ten cars in the middle without a brakeman. These came down the grade at a fearful rate, and the engineers, with the advanced portions, trying to keep out of the way meantime whistling the alarm for two engines, which were on the track waiting for the train, to get out of the way. Before they could get sufficient headway, the broken train was upon them. Sixteen cars were smashed up and four engines injured. Nobody seriously hurt

The Lower Columbia River.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR: I do not agree exactly with the ideas of the geography of the Columbia river as set forth in your issue of the 17th. According to the old adage, "give the devil his due," Astoria has as good a claim to a location on the Columbia river as any other place inside of Point Adams and Cape Disappointment. The fact of the river spreading at its mouth does not take from the Columbia river its identity on one shore more than the other. The best channel, affording the most water for deep ships from Oak Point is mostly found on the Washington Territory side, and more direct to the ocean. From Cementville or Knappton to the ocean, the channel is deeper and better in every particular to "Clatsop Spit," and from Chinook Point there is a good, wide beating channel, while the opposite shore has not. If an unbiased or impartial person, competent to survey the Columbia river from Oak Point to the "Clatsop Spit" were set at work, and should complete the same, Astoria would be left out of the question in future as a source of trouble from the pilots finding bars, where no one ever heard of their existence until within the last fifteen months

The pilots state fifteen and a half feet as being all they can take over this bar at low water. Now what looks like want of energy somewhere is the fact that the rise of tide at full and change of the moon is some [illegible] feet spring and five feet neap [illegible], and six hours waiting would give at high [illegible] twenty-three feet, and high water [illegible] feet at least. A ship cannot anchor six hours for tide, but she can lay at Astoria three [illegible] and discharge [illegible] of [illegible] that [illegible] be put to [illegible] and landed in five days time, perhaps less. If the river can be surveyed without partiality or undue influence (as it is too common at the present day) upon the party who [illegible] the task, the [illegible] advanced in the piece of the 17th, except the geography of the river in regard to Astoria, are beyond dispute

Indian Lands.

The following letter has been received by the Register and Receiver at the Walla Walla Land Office

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D C, April 30, 1872

Register and Receiver—Walla Walla, W T.,
Gentlemen: By order of the President, dated April 9, 1872, the territory lying immediately east of the Columbia river, bounded north and east by Clark's Fork of said river and the east boundary line of Washington Territory, and on the South by the Spokane River, has been set apart for Indian purposes, and, therefore, not subject to settlement or sale. A small portion of the above reservation has been surveyed, viz: Townships 34, 35, 36, and part of township 33 north of range 39 east which will of course be held in reservation in compliance with said order.

Very respectfully
WILLIS DRUMMOND,
Commissioner

The nomination of Horace Greeley has so dumbfounded the leading Democratic journals that they have not yet emerged sufficiently from their comatose state to decide upon a course of action. The smaller fry having received their instructions before hand to support the nominee, whoever they might be, from those who had as much expected to see the "King of the Cannibal Islands" nominated as Mr Greeley, opened out at once with the prepared cartridges that had already been furnished them, but such papers as the New York World and the Chicago Times, which had sense enough to recognize the situation, very hastily climbed the nearest fence and there they still sit

The house of Greeley has gained a new and worthy champion: Jake Thompson, Buchanan's Secretary of the Interior, who resigned to go into the rebellion, and was through out one of its ugliest adherents. He argues that the South could get all its wants out of Greeley and that there is a poor chance of electing an out-and out Democrat

The following is a statement of the totals of the Boston National Banks as returned to the Clearing House on Monday April 8 1872: Capital $48 050 000, loans $116 630 000, specie $3 770 500, legal tender notes $7 357 400, deposits $47 673 000, circulation $25 813 100

Better Manners Needed

It should be unnecessary to say that persons who are set up as public characters as candidates for the suffrages of the people should act as gentlemen. The public will judge whether the candidates for the Legislature on the so-called People's Ticket in Multnomah county come fully up to this requirement or not.

These candidates have published in the Democratic organ a card in which they say: "We were brought before the people for the very reason that we are opposed to the monopoly principles embodied in the ticket nominated through Mr Holladay's sinister influences and which is understood to be pledged to his peculiar interests."

There are insinuations in this statement which are simply slanders. Of course it is meant that the Republican ticket is pledged to Holladay's peculiar interests, being nominated by "sinister influences exerted by him." And the inference to be drawn is that in case they are elected the Republican members of the Legislature for this county will sacrifice the public interests to advance private ones. In short, these men are accused of possessing neither manhood nor independence, and of being incapable of taking a just view of the wants and interests of the country.

Now we challenge a comparison in all particulars between the candidates on the two tickets. Those on the Republican ticket are honorable and leading citizens and successful business men. All their interests are in the county and State. They are old residents, and are men of tried integrity, of acknowledged ability and high in business and social position. We say nothing against the character and standing of their opponents, but in what respect these latter can claim any advantage, or pretend to greater devotion to the interests of the county and State, the people are not able to see. The insinuations thrown out in the "card" to which we have alluded are not worthy of men who seek to represent the people of this county.

These gentlemen say that they were "brought before the people." This may be accepted as a piece of pleasantry. The fact is well known that they "brought" themselves before the people, and are not to-day supported by the classes who represent the great, varied and growing interests of Multnomah county. Their claim to this is presumptuous and absurd.

A Discovery

Here is the Herald with a discovery of a "big land swindle," namely the grant to the Oregon Central Military Road Company, extending from Eugene City to the southeastern border of the State. This "swindle" is "unearthed" by a correspondent of the Herald, to whom that paper acknowledges itself much indebted for the favor. Now, if our neighbor will just turn back over his files he will discover that the Herald two years ago was making a vigorous fight in behalf of this same company, and was accusing Senator Williams of want of faith toward it because he would not give the company a railroad grant in addition to their wagon road grant, but took a stand in behalf of the interests of Southern Oregon. Thus the Herald now calls "swindlers" those whom it championed in the last political canvass. But while it is speaking of these wagon road "swindles," it does not mention the worst one of all, namely, the one from the Dalles to Snake river, which is of no use whatever to the State, and which has enriched a Democratic corporation at the expense of the public. It is not a little singular that this one was omitted by the Herald. And it is quite as singular to find that paper now thanking a correspondent for discovering and characterizing as a "swindle" the very same land grant which that paper defended with all the vigor it possessed two years ago.

Because a railroad contractor, who wants to hire men, went to Oregon City a few days ago upon that business, a cry is raised by the Herald that an effort is being made by the "railroad king to defeat the all-important enterprise (the locks at Falls) because it is not under his control." Then by parity of reasoning, the locks company wants to "defeat" the railroads, since they have been hiring men from the railroads whenever they could. But all this is pitiful nonsense. Large numbers of laborers are wanted by contractors on all the public works, and they get them wherever they can. A standing advertisement for one thousand men for railroad work is posted on our streets. If the contractors want to go to Oregon City to hire men, it is not easy to see why they have not a right to do it,—quite as much right in fact as anybody has to go to Salem to buy wheat.

The Herald is still spending a great deal of space in an endeavor to show that the vote of Multnomah county cannot be as large as we estimated it. The official report of the United States census of 1870 made the number of legal voters 3 265. Of these not quite 2 500 were polled in the election of that year,—a fact which substantiates our remark that many were unable to vote on account of the press at the polls. We are confident that our estimate, which the Herald is combatting is below rather than in excess of the voting population. Every additional fact corroborates this view.

Says the Herald: "The Railroad king hopes by hook or crook to get the Locks into his clutches, and then he will be King of transportation in fact." Well, if he hopes to get the Locks he has only to notify the Company of his acceptance of their offer to sell them. It would be a very simple business transaction. And then if anybody didn't like the situation he could use the same means of transportation which were in use before either railroads or locks existed.

The candidates for the Legislature on the Dolly Varden ticket have published an announcement that they will favor in the Legislature a bill to consolidate the city of Portland and the county of Multnomah under one government. We reckon this will not be a very popular measure in the country precincts unless the farming population are anxious to help us pay for supporting Grover's police and for lighting our streets.

Many Citizens, that is the little grumbling clique who have put up a ticket for the Democracy in this county, write to the Herald that Ben Holladay is resolved to get the Canal and Locks in his own control. Then why hasn't he bought them? They have been offered to him often enough.

Of course if any Republican in Multnomah county wants to send men to the Legislature who will vote for a Democrat for United States Senator such Republican had better vote for the men on the dollyvarden ticket.

Its Character Revealed

The self nominated candidates for the Legislature on the Chow Chow ticket in this county have seen fit to issue an address on the subject of the Canal and Locks at Wallamet Falls. We quote this:

> We say most emphatically that if elected we will use all honorable means to see that the [illegible] company having the [illegible] of the Wallamet Falls Canal and Locks in charge shall be fairly dealt with and that they shall deal fairly with the public. We should regard it as a serious misfortune if that enterprise should come within the control of Mr Holladay or any other monopolist and we will most strenuously oppose any attempt to bring about a step so disastrous.

It seems then that these gentlemen seek an election in order that they may be in a position to do something more for the Locks Company. Now let us inquire if enough has not already been done. The State gave the Company a magnificent subsidy and the school children of the State were robbed in order to do it. The Company has given a bond to complete the Locks as required by law. There is a valid binding contract, and neither party can repudiate it. Yet these candidates for the Legislature now come forward and say virtually that something more must be done that the State must render further aid. That is the meaning of their manifesto. For if the Company is to be required to fulfill its obligations what is the need of this appeal in the Company's behalf? The phrase, "the Company shall be fairly dealt with," is a mere juggle of words. The Legislature should have nothing whatever to do with the Company except to see that it performs its contract and does what is nominated in the bond. Anything else will be uncalled for and wrong. The Company has already received $75 000 more than it ought and Multnomah county though desirous of having the Locks built will not sanction a further subsidy and least of all another raid on the school fund. And if these gentlemen who ask to be elected to the Legislature would prevent this enterprise from coming within the control of Mr Holladay they would do well to induce the Company to make no further offers to sell to him. This address reveals the fact that this so called People's Ticket is simply running in the interest of the corporation which is working at Wallamet Falls and which is operating in the political interest of Grover, Miller and Teal.

Bitter Disappointment

The Nation, a literary and political paper of high rank published in New York, has been an ardent supporter of the Cincinnati movement. In its next issue after the Convention it stated that "a greater degree of incredulity and disappointment than was caused by the nominations at Cincinnati has not been felt in this country since the news of the first battle of Bull Run." This is followed soon after by another statement which can hardly be called reassuring. It is, in effect, that all of those who called the Cincinnati convention "acknowledge privately that it was a failure, some of them admit it openly. Those of them who are supporting Mr Greeley's nomination are doing so simply by way of making the best of a bad job. Not one of them considers him a desirable candidate or looks forward to his election without grave apprehensions." There is much more of this, but a correspondent at Cincinnati makes the matter still worse.

The result leaves the revenue reformers in a pitiable condition. They have not only been shut out of the platform, but they have helped to nominate the greatest living champion of protection. Worse than this after spending months in the preparation of a great movement for the overthrow of politicians they have been made the victims of one of the paltriest political tricks ever executed and this at the hands of a professed and rampant friend of honest government. Last evening they did not know what to say. This morning they are more cheerful and disposed to believe that Brown and Blair might have done worse things than give us Greeley for a President.

A Southern Democratic View

In the Atlanta (Ga) Sun A H Stephens has an article on the relative position of Mr Greeley and Gen Grant as to the Southern vote. He says:

> It is true Mr Greeley did a most magnanimous act in standing bail for Mr Davis, but in this he acted a part no more magnanimous than Gen Grant did when he notified Mr Stanton or the authorities at Washington that he would resign his commission in the army if General Lee should be arrested, as was about to be done in violation of the parole given him on the memorable surrender of Appomattox Court House, after the war growing out of secession. It is well known that General Grant was for the immediate restoration of the States to their practical relations in the Union while Mr Greeley favored the second war against the Constitution by which ten Southern commonwealths were stricken from the roll of States and put under military rule.

Mr Stephens is of opinion that it would be suicidal for the Democratic National Convention to declare for Mr Greeley. He is very severe on what he terms the efforts of Mr Belmont Chairman of the Democratic National Committee and the New York World, to hatch new tricks to betray the Democratic party. He declares that their purpose is to prevent a real Democratic victory, or the triumph of Democratic principles.

The fusion ticket in Multnomah county is expected to answer but one purpose. The managers do not suppose that any part of it can be elected but it is put forth as an experiment toward bringing the Democracy of Oregon over to the support of Greeley and Brown.

Large numbers of Democrats in the city refuse to vote a ticket made up of renegade Republicans and [illegible] renegade Republicans. And that is what is the matter with the fusion ticket.

Nothing yet in the Herald about that defalcation in Grant county.

He was allowed to depart in peace for California but his employers unreasonably refused to lend him $70 to buy a first class ticket to San Francisco.

The School Superintendent of Josephine county makes the following report for the year ending March 31, 1872: No of districts, 10; persons over 4 and under 20 437; males, 229; females 208; voters, 302; quarters taught, 13; average attendance, 193; average cost of quarter, $117; amount paid teachers from county fund $326; amount paid teachers from district tax, $999; amount of contingent expenses $13 50.

Enough has been ascertained according to the Idaho papers concerning the killing of Al Priest an escaped convict from the Territorial Penitentiary by Rinearson to induce one to believe that the killing was unnecessary and ought to be deprecated by every law abiding and order loving citizen of the Territory. The last number of the Idaho Standard says Priest was espied moving slowly along, riding one horse and leading the other. Rinearson succeeded in getting within fifty yards unobserved when he dismounted and with a Henry rifle shot Priest out of the saddle. The horses then took fright and ran several miles before they were caught. Priest was left where he fell.

THURSDAY MORNING MAY 23 1872

CITY.

ARREST OF A BIGAMIST AT . . . —F A White Sheriff from Tillamook had been, for several days, in pursuit of one L F Westgate for whom he had a warrant of arrest for the crime of bigamy in that he, the said Westgate, had recently married a young maid of over 16 at the same time being a legally married man with a wife living in California. On Sunday last White returned from a fruitless search through Portland and other places. While standing on the porch of the Cliff House, in conversation on the subject with the proprietor, he was suddenly surprised at the sight of the object of his pursuit walking up street with his young bride lovingly leaning on his arm. Closely watching them the Sheriff saw both enter the Barlow House. Summoning to his aid the Marshal and Constable he proceeded to serve the warrant, and the accused betrayer of youthful innocence was transferred from his boarding house to the city jail for safe keeping until the steamer should leave for Dayton on the morrow. On Monday morning the prisoner accompanied by the Marshal and Sheriff proceeded from the prison to take the steamer. When opposite the house where his youthful wife was stopping, he begged permission to bid her adieu—she, by the way, refusing to accompany him. The Marshal and Sheriff could not refuse so reasonable a request, and a five minutes' interview was granted. Five minutes or more having expired, Sheriff White called to his prisoner to hurry up or they would miss the steamer. The prisoner did not respond as quickly as the Sheriff thought he ought to, and the door was opened and only one . . . found in the room, a sobbing girl. The room had another door, and the prisoner knew it and up to the present time is non est inventus, much to the chagrin of the Sheriff of Tillamook.

LIST OF JURORS.—The following list of jurors has been drawn in the County Clerk's office for the spring term of the Circuit Court, which will convene on the second Monday of June. Col . . . "GARIBALDI."—Capt. A Noyes of this bark writes to O. S Phelps of this city, from Hongkong, under date of April 12th in which he states that he had a fine voyage from Hongkong to Saigon and back. The passage was made in fifty six days. The Garibaldi was delayed some time at the former port in discharging her cargo of rice, which had fallen so in price that it could hardly be sold. From the date of the letter it was thought that the bark would not be ready to clear for Portland for fifty days at least. Business is generally very good at Hongkong. The letter also stated that another bark not so large as the Garibaldi was on berth for Portland and would sail about the middle of last month.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The following are the proceedings had by the Circuit Court at Hillsboro on Tuesday

Oregon Central Railroad vs Wm McLin and others, suit for right of way jury was out

O.C R R vs Joseph Toster suit for right of way; motion to strike out part of defendant's answer. Motion sustained and defendant allowed to file amended answer.

. . . Bros. vs D O Quick, defendant's demurrer sustained and plaintiff allowed to amend on terms.

State of Oregon vs C A Westfall, on trial

CHARITY.—A few days ago a well known lady of this city found a poor family consisting of a mother and several small children who had been eking out a subsistence for some time on $20 per month, allowed them by a benevolent Society of the city. The lady referred to at once undertook . . . to obtain assistance for these destitute, and drew up a subscription paper to be circulated for that purpose. This paper was delivered to A . . ., the carpenter, who devoted a day to its circulation, and succeeded in raising $110 75 which has been duly paid over to the unfortunate family.

. . . EXTENSION.—The railroad track at the corner of North Front and F streets, has been extended southward from the intersection for about fifty yards. The sidewalk in front of the Boss' saloon has been torn up, and the earth, as rapidly as brought down, will be dumped under the end of that building. It is the intention to raise the building about three feet higher than it is at present. The work of filling up the upper end of Couch's Lake will be prosecuted with vigor now that the 'steam paddy' has been placed in effective operation.

GEN E L APPLEGATE.—This gentleman is now stopping at the Metropolis Hotel in this city. Mr. Applegate will speak at the Court House on Saturday evening next on the political issues of the day, instead of at the Republican Headquarters. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies, to every Republican, and to as many dis . . . Democrats as may desire to attend. Mr A. is one of the ablest and most facetious speakers in the State. We advise all to attend who wish to enjoy a good laugh and be instructed at the same time

EXPLOSION.—A lighted lamp, which had been placed under a retort used in connection with an Arctic soda fountain, at the drug store of C H Woodard, on Tuesday evening exploded. The report could be heard for a long distance, and was . . . by many for the discharge of a gun or pistol. The druggist desired to warm some chemical preparation, and set the lamp under the vessel. He was called to attend on a customer and forgot the lamp until it was blown into fragments. No damage.

BANNER TICKET.—A very large canvas banner on which is painted in big letters the names on the county ticket, was stretched across the street on Tuesday evening in front of the Republican headquarters. A wag suggests that the Democrats ought to have their fellah's names painted on striped bed ticking as it will best convey the streaked character of the ticket. By the way where are their headquarters? We are kept in profound ignorance.

MISTAKE OF NAMES.—In the item of yesterday morning entitled "Threatened Assault" the name of Mr. Hummel was used as the person threatening the assault. The name should have been J . . .ber. The error arose from the fact that the two men live adjoining. The mistake was not discovered until the warrant was to be served.

BACKED OFF.—On Wednesday morning as Mr Baldwin was crossing the Willamette river in his private ferry boat with his milk wagon the horse backed off the boat. After much difficulty the animal was saved by cutting him loose but the wagon sank in ten feet of water, and will be . . .

PRODUCE.—The following quantities of freight were brought down on the train last evening 4,346 pound merchandise 320 pounds chickens 2 . . . oats, 1,483 pounds eggs 6 . . . s flour 1 car bran, 3,261 pounds dried apples 2 . . . 00 pounds . . . and . . ., 480 pounds plums

YOUNG SEAL.—A young seal some two months old, was captured a few days since down the river. It can be seen at Quinn's Fish market on First street. It is a very sprightly little creature and will make a rather interesting pet should the owner so decide

TO-NIGHT.—Don't fail to attend the speaking at the Republican Headquarters this evening. Hon Rufus Mallory of Salem will address the Club, besides several others. Let every Republican attend. Music as usual

RIVER.—The Willamette river lacks two feet nine inches of submerging the lower story of the steamship company's wharf. The Columbia river yesterday was rising at the rate of half an inch per hour

NEW ORGAN.—We learn that the members of the M. E Church at Lee's Chapel have recently purchased a new organ to be used at that church for the sum of $150

A THIEF THRASHED SOUNDLY.—We have just heard of a "little circumstance" in which a petty sneak thief was caught in the act and very soundly thrashed. For several weeks past Mr R Yost who owns the Portland Sausage Factory near the corner of Taylor and Third streets had missed every several days a fine ham or two. He used all the vigilance possible, but failed each time to catch the thief. A few nights since he was awakened from sleep by some noise in his back yard. He arose quietly and slipped cautiously out. The moon was shining a little so that he had the pleasure of seeing a Chinaman raising a window at the rear of the factory. He allowed the gentleman to raise the sash and enter the building. Arming himself with a stout cudgel he slipped noiselessly around to the front door. He suddenly turned the key and entered the room. The Chinaman was fully as rapid as Mr Yost. He dropped two large hams and made a leap for the open window and had succeeded in getting his head and shoulders through when the Professor came down on his back like a thousand brick' with his bludgeon. This so disabled him that he could not get out. Yost then proceeded to waltz into the fellow's meat house quite lively. He wielded the club so terribly over the Chinaman's back shoulders and legs that he cried out most lustily for quarters. After having administered a very severe flagellation, Yost 'let up' on him and he was allowed to depart in peace. The Professor has since been heard to declare that he had more satisfaction out of that Chinaman than if he was arrested several times and that he guessed that Chinaman was not in a good condition to digest 'ham and eggs.' It was a very costly meal, but it served the thief right

NARROW GAUGE LOCOMOTIVE.—The bark Rival brought to this port the first narrow gauge locomotive ever brought to this coast. It will be used in connection with a construction train. The engine which is called the Walla Walla will be used on the Walla Walla & Wallula Railroad and is intended to run on a three foot track. The entire length of the engine and tender, which are not in two parts as in other locomotives, but joined together is 14 feet. It was made at the shop of Messrs Porter Hall & Co Pittsburg Pa. Besides the locomotive the Rival has on board a portable steam engine called the "Caroline" and consigned to R. V. Howard Franklin, Oregon. It was made in Lawrence Mass

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On night before last Mrs . . . Quiver an estimable old lady of this city met with a very sad and painful if not a fatal accident. For some time past she has been prostrated with a severe spell of sickness which by its long continuance had rendered her very feeble. At the time in question she was left alone and by some means fell from the bed in which she was lying to the floor. The fall produced a severe fracture of the thigh bone which we are informed it was very difficult for the surgeons to reduce owing to the extreme weakness of the patient, and her inability to bear the pain incident to the operation

FOR WALLA WALLA.—Mr Rowe the advance agent for Marshall & Co's Tycoon Troupe goes to the Dalles this morning and from thence will proceed to Walla Walla. The troupe are limited in time as to their stay in this city. Saturday evening will close their engagement here. They will then perform east of the mountains probably return here for a few days and proceed overland to California. All should improve the opportunity thus afforded of witnessing the marvelous feats of this troupe before they take their departure

GOOD EFFECTS.—If we are to credit the reports of exchanges the good effects resulting from the recent enforcement of the vagrant law in this city are beginning to be very apparent. Some of our . . . and irresponsible population have f . . . it . . . to . . . drift . . . They are now all . . . the . . . of Walla Walla and the several towns up the valley. We can . . . entirely spare a few more that . . .

THE LECTURE.—Rev George Burton delivered an address last evening at the Masonic Hall for the benefit of the Wallamet Society. A very fair . . . audience attended. The lecture is highly spoken of as a literary effort

NO STEAMER.—No steamer will sail for Sitka until the first of next month

AMUSEMENTS

THE CONCERT.—The concert given at the Congregational Church last evening was a decided success. A very fair audience was present. After the concert the ladies held a festival in the basement which met with a liberal patronage

THE JAPANESE THEATER.—The Japanese Troupe gave their second performance at the . . . Theater last evening to a crowded house. The performance was in no wise inferior to that of the preceding evening. All should go and see them

Story of the Songs

"SWEET EVELINA — I HAVE [illegible] MUSIC [illegible]

Yesterday "I was just as happy as a big sun flower but to day My heart is full I can hear it beat I feel like saying I'm a broken hearted milkman

Listen to my story

"I knew a little widow Her name was "Sweet Evelina," and she was the only daughter of Old Grimes that good old man

"We met by chance '—" 'Twas in the early spring time less than 'A hundred years Ago In the cottage by the sea (Long Branch) 'Twas a calm still night when the stars, Beautiful stars, shone in the happy home above that I met 'Sweet Evelina,' 'This dark girl dressed in blue

"Sweet Evelina was sitting on a stile watching 'A bold soldier boy as he sang 'A wet sheet and a flowing sea in his 'Home on the rolling deep 'She was a handsome creature and she wore a waterfall If 'Champagne Charley' had seen her "Walking down Broadway he would have said O, she is such a charmer!

"As I met this little widow She cast a side glance and looked down

"Art thou Dreaming still Dreaming 'Sweet Evelina' asked her father A fine old English gentleman'

"'My heart is over the sea father, replied the unhappy daughter, 'My lovyer is a sail yer boy'—I cannot live always single, and I should like to marry'

"'Sweet one,' What are the wild waves saying, asked Old Grimes

'When I listen to the Shells of the ocean father, I fancy I hear them say, Paddle your own canoe,' but, father, I prefer having somebody paddle it for me

"If I was only married continued Evelina, 'I'd gay and happy be In a cot in the valley I love

"'Sweet Evelina, I said, 'I'm a young man from the country, and 'I have no one to love, none to caress me! Wilt thou Come to my mountain home—Come and be my bride?'"

"'Yes, I should like to marry, replied 'The beautiful dreamer' 'but My first love 'Captain Jinks, 'I never can forget

"'Won't you tell me why Robin?' I interrupted as I took from her hand The last rose of summer, 'Tis but a faded flower, 'Give, O give it me'

"'Ask me not why, Eli, she replied then saying, "'Tis all for thee, as she handed me the rose and asked, Will you love me then as now?'"

"'With all my heart I love thee I replied "I would call me thine own, 'I am fancy free; 'The girl I left behind me' 'She has learned to love another, and now, 'Sweet Evelina,' 'You can live in my heart and pay no rent.'"

"I cannot think 'You're fooling me she [illegible], and then smiling, ('That bright smile haunts me still,) said "You'd better be off with the old love before you're on with the new 'Yes, Eli," she continued, "Can you say 'Good-bye, sweet heart, to 'Kitty Clyde,' 'Nellie Bly,' 'Annie Laurie,' 'Nellie Gray,' 'Blue-eyed Mary,' and 'Widow Machree,' and let them all go 'Up in a balloon' for me?"

"Yes dearest, 'Loving, I trust in thee,'" I [illegible], "'I will be true to thee" as 'Old Dog Tray.'"

"O, 'Sweet Evelina,' 'I never could prove false to thee,'" I sobbed and then said, "'Come O, come with me,' and leave 'The old folks at home.' 'When the swallows homeward fly,'" I continued, 'Wilt thou Come to the little brown church?'"

"'By the softly,' Eli," said Evelina, "Can't you 'Wait for the wagon?'

"No, 'My dark girl dressed in blue,' Come here to the wedding,' You shall be the — 'est girl that's out,' 'Thou art so near and yet so far,'"

Evelina fell into a trance "'Sleeping I dr — love,' dream love of 'Auld Lang Syne,'" she murmured in her sleep Then taking out her handkerchief she exclaimed, "'O, ye tears,'" Then she continued I will offer ye this hand of mine, if Thou will love then as now'"

"And send off 'Dandy Jim,' Champagne Charley,' 'Pat Malloy,' 'Ben Bolt,' 'Old Dan Tucker,' and all 'The boys in blue?'"

"No, no," exclaimed "Sweet Evelina," "'Not for Joseph, you ask too much How I love the military,' you may have 'John Anderson,' but I cannot give up Captain Jinks,' 'O, the Captain with his whiskers, for 'He was a handsome man.'

"False one!' I shrieked, 'Looking out on the Murmuring sea, 'How can I leave thee?' 'When thou'rt gone from my gaze like a beautiful star,' and I'm wondering 'Where are the hopes that I cherished' 'You will think of me?'" I asked.

"Yes, 'I'm leaving thee in sorrow,' and I'll think of thee,'" she replied, as she tripped 'Lovely as a Rose' 'Along the Beach at Long Branch,' humming Then you'll remember me"

"Then 'Sweet Evelina'" I said, "I must say, 'Sweet love, good night to thee,' Ye soft blue eyes good night!' I cannot sing the old song' for 'My heart is lonely now With my 'Heart bowed down,' I thought 'It is better to laugh " ' y be sighing,' for 'We may be happy yet.'" Then dropping in at the West End, I said, "'Landlord, fill the flowing bowl, and 'We'll drink boys drink,' till 'Five o'clock in the morning'"—Eli Perkins, in N. Y. Commercial

The Way of Reform

The following paragraph is from an article in the Boston Advertiser

There is nothing in the support which Mr Greeley had at Cincinnati, nor in the effervescence which his nomination has excited among personal friends and self-seekers indifferent to the national welfare to show that the Greeley movement has any better prospects of success against the present administration than the Freemont movement had in 1864 against the administration of President Lincoln It is more vulnerable than that movement, for while it is no more practical in its leadership it is indebted for its greater prominence before the country to the most open and audacious traffic in votes ever practised in a national convention If it is corrupt to trade one office for another and to obtain by promises of public rewards votes which would not be given without such promises, the nominations at Cincinnati were corruptly made Thousands of people saw this process going on for five days culminating in Gratz Brown's withdrawal of his name in Mr Greeley's favor and his own subsequent nomination for the second place by the votes of Mr Greeley's friends whereby the real purpose of the convention was thwarted and the large body of men who went there honestly in the interest of reform were surprised captured and scalped Upon a scale so vast for a stake affecting the interests and the happiness of forty millions of people in a convention called to rebuke certain alleged departures from rectitude by the party in power and to set an example of how a pure party might be organized and conducted, it was presumed that the management would be in keeping with its magnificent pretensions, and give any man who has been made unhappy by the decline in political morality reason to be proud of such an example. Yet we venture to say that since national nominating conventions began to be held not one can present a parallel to the hypocrisy and corruption which obtained control and gave character to this one and now presents its candidates to the country in the name of political reform!

The Herald which has come back strongly to the support of General Grant after its brief flirtation with Dr Greeley says in its Washington correspondence There is a better feeling in administration circles respecting the political situation The demand for an independent Democratic ticket comes [illegible] from the West and the weakness of the Cincinnati ticket and platform among the Republicans and Conservatives of that section and especially in the Southwest can no longer be concealed The free traders and [illegible] protectionists of the West all [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] fighting [illegible] principle [illegible] their regular party [illegible] and if the way [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the case [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the Philadelphia convention meets
